R-DAY VIOLENCE

SC stays arrest of Tharoor, Sardesai, others for sharing 'unconfirmed' news

AGENCIES New Delhi The Supreme Court on Tuesday stayed the arrest of Congress leader Shashi Tharoor, veteran journalist Rajdeep Sardesai, and others, who challenged the registration of multiple FIRs against them for allegedly sharing certain unconfirmed news on the death of one of the protestors, during the Kisan tractor rally on Republic Day. Kapil Sibal, senior lawyer appearing for Tharoor and Sardesai, sought an immediate stay on the arrest of his clients and said, "My lords, I seek immediate relief in the case." "We stay the arrest till we hear the matter further," the bench, comprising of Chief Justice Sharad Arvind Bobde, Justices AS Bopanna and V Ramasubramanian, said. The apex court also issued a notice to the state of Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Haryana and others, seeking replies in the registration of FIRs. During the course of the hearing, when Sibal pleaded for no coercive action till the matter further being taken up for hearing, Bobde, asked him, "Where is the danger?" To Solicitor General (SG) Tushar Mehta appearing for the Delhi Police, the CJI asked, "Mr Mehta, are you going to arrest them till we hear you?" Mehta replied, "One should always think about the horrendous effect these tweets could have, as they have a lot of followers," assuring that they would not be arrested till the next date of hearing. The other accused persons, besides Sardesai and Tharoor who got relief and cannot be arrested till further hearing in the case from the apex court, include Anant and Paresh Nath, Mrinal Pandey, Zafar Agha and Vinod K Jose. They all had allegedly made incorrect statements and reported wrongly on the tractor rally violence on Republic Day and face several FIRs in many states.

Lokpal appointment panel meets: CIC disallows minutes disclosure

NEW DELHI: The CIC has refused to allow disclosure of minutes of selection committee meetings to choose the chairperson and members of anti-graft body Lokpal. Over 2 years since an application seeking records pertaining to the selection of the nation's Lokpal and other members was filed, the Central Information Commission (CIC) rejected it citing 2 Supreme Court judgments on contempt petitions over the non-appointment of Lokpal even after the SC's directives and transparency in the appointment of information commissioners. "The commission is of the considered view in the instant matter, the CPIO upheld the interest of transparency by informing the appellant about all the details of the selection committee and its meetings, hence the question of lack of transparency does not hold ground. Moreover, having taken cognizance of the averred dictum of the apex court, the commission does not find it appropriate to intervene in the decision of the CPIO," Information Commissioner Sarjot Punhani said. Transparency and anti-corruption activist Anjali Bhardwaj had filed the RTI application in November 2018 with the DoPT, seeking records about the selection process of the chairperson and members of the Lokpal.

No change in UPSC exam to those age-barred, SC told

NEW DELHI: The Centre on Tuesday told the Supreme Court that it is not in favour of one-time relaxation to UPSC exam aspirants who are age-barred, as it will be discriminatory to other candidates. Scores of petitioners, who had exhausted their attempt in October 2020 exam amid Covid-19, had moved the top court urging it to grant them an extra chance. Additional Solicitor General S.V. Raju, representing the Centre, submitted before a bench headed by Justice A.M. Khanwilkar that initially the government was not willing to give an extra chance, but it mellowed its stand after a suggestion from the bench. After a detailed hearing in the matter, the top court reserved its verdict on a plea seeking an extra chance for UPSC aspirants, who exhausted all attempts last October, against the backdrop of mental and physical trauma due to the ongoing pandemic.

Why minister VK Singh not sacked despite helping China: Rahul

OUR BUREAU / New Delhi Former Congress President Rahul Gandhi on Tuesday asked: "Why is a BJP Minister helping China make a case against India." He insisted the minister should have been sacked. In a tweet, he said: "Not sacking him means insulting every Indian Jawan." He was referring to remarks by Union Minister of State for Highways General (retd) VK Singh that India has transgressed Line of Actual Control (LAC) more times than China. Much more serious is that Singh was a former 4-star general of the Indian Army. His contention is an embarrassment for Prime Minister Narendra Modi unless he is toeing his constant line that China has not transgressed the Indian territory. Defence experts wonder if a policy change has been sounded through the general. While China lost no time in exploiting the admission of an Indian Minister as an "unwitting confession", strategic experts wonder whether what Gen (retd) Singh said had the tacit approval of the Modi government as the same has not been denied by any responsible authority so far. Speaking to the media in Madurai on February 6, Singh said the border with China has never been demarcated and China had transgressed many times over the years with its own perception of the LAC.
