100-day plan of Modi 2.0: Strategic sales, simplifying GST slabs, credit to MSMEs

AGENCIES
New Delhi

The Union government's 167 'transformative ideas for implementation in the first 100 days of the Modi governments second stint - that is by October 15 -- is likely to see the Finance Ministry taking measured steps turning India into a $5 trillion economy by 2025 and work towards its promise to double farm income by 2022 among others.

The ideas which were also part of the government's earlier action plans while elections were underway have recently been reiterated by the Cabinet Secretary P.K. Sinha in a meeting with sectoral secretaries where he asked them to start implementing these ideas and update on the progress weekly.

Sources said the ideas are a compilation of those aggregated during the elections time and also later as part of the Budget and the main aim is to lift the economy out of the slow growth, push consumption, demand and private investment which are the catalyst for any growth economy.

The other plans for finance ministry to be taken within October 15 time period are simplification of GST by doing away with the two top rates of 18% and 28% where GST tax slabs could be merged into two main rates from four at present.

The 100-day action is also to focus on freezing the bank accounts of the shell companies and those struck off from the MCA list. The agenda includes some reforms and procedural bottlenecks in the departments to let the pace of transformation more faster.

The sell-off department DIPAM will focus on fully privatising certain loss making CPSEs.

The government is even considering lifting the foreign direct investment cap on Air India, the loss-making state-owned flagship carrier, to make it easier to sell after it failed to get any buyer last fiscal.

DIPAM is expected to aggressively pursue strategic divestment within the year and more so lay the roadmap in the next 100 days with concrete progress. It will also have set the tone for more proceeds through launching more ETFs, list of companies already cleared by CCEA.

The Department of Financial Services would have to carve out the roadmap for banking reforms and consolidation of PSU banks at a later stage and the reduction of government holding in PSU banks through ETFs. But the 100-day immediate action would involve Bank credit offtake in MSMEs, NBFCs.

BJP MLA's daughter, hubby roughed up outside courtroom by lawyers

ALLHABAD: BJP MLA Rajesh Mishra's daughter Sakshi and her husband Ajitesh Kumar, who allegedly feared for their lives for marrying outside their castes, were attacked inside the High Court complex on Monday by some lawyers, minutes after they were ordered to be given protection by the court.

The couple, who were stepping out of the courtroom after the hearing and were pushed around, were rescued by other lawyers, the Cantonment police station SHO A K Gautam told PTI.

He said the couple was not willing to lodge any complaint on the incident and that media reports of their being attacked was baseless. Justice Siddharth Verma granted protection to Sakshi and Ajitesh who had asked for security contending that there is a threat to their life from Mishra who is unhappy with the marriage as Sakshi is a Brahmin and Ajitesh a Dalit by caste.

According to a lawyer, the court order would come into force only after the requisite signature was procured. The couple had prayed that neither police nor Mishra should disturb them in their peaceful living as they were adults and had got married on their free will. Meanwhile, another couple was allegedly abducted from outside the court premises, leading to a high drama in the area with people thinking that it was Sakshi and Ajitesh.

Later, SSP of Allahabad, Atul Sharma said the couple has been rescued from Fatehpur district and are being questioned. A senior police official S N Sawant told reporters that the information on abduction of the couple was received through a TV channel and by scanning the CCTV around they got the details of the vehicle used in the act.

Shortage of spares of AN-32 jet due to strain in Russia-Ukraine ties

NEW DELHI: There is shortage of certain Russian-origin spare parts of AN-32 transport aircraft due to strained relations between Russia and Ukraine, the government said on Monday. In a written response to a question in the Rajya Sabha, Minister of State for Defence Shripad Naik said the Indian Air Force (IAF) has 98 AN-32 aircraft and none has outlived its operational life.

"More than half of Indian Air Force's AN-32 aircraft have been upgraded with structural upgrade as well as installation of advanced avionics such as radar, radio sets, navigation system etc and the remaining are under upgradation in a phased manner.

The serviceability of the fleet has been at par with other fleets," he said. "There is shortage of certain spares of Russian origin due to strained relations between Russia and Ukraine," Naik added. Russia had annexed Crimea from Ukraine in 2014 following which the ties between the two nations strained.

In response to another question, he said 500 terrorists were killed in counter terrorist (CT), counter infiltration (CI) and terrorist initiated incidents (TII) in 2017 and 2018.

TDP MP asks Naidu to control his 'pet dog'

AMARAVATI

The war of words between two leaders of the TDP in Andhra Pradesh touched a new low with Vijayawada MP Kesineni Nani on Monday asking the party President N. Chandrababu Naidu to control his "pet dog".

The MP asked the former Chief Minister to clarify whether he wants him to continue in Telugu Desam Party (TDP) or not.

"Chandra Babu Garu if you don't want people like me in the party you can let me know. I will resign as Member of Parliament and also to the Party membership. If you want people like me to continue, please control your pet dog," tweeted Nani.

The tweet has an obvious reference to TDP leader and Member of Andhra Pradesh Legislative Council Buddha Venkanna with whom Nani had a war of words on the micro blogging site. Reacting to the MP's latest tweet, Venkanna announced that he was putting an end to the 'twitter war' for the sake of the party and Chandrababu Naidu.

"I come from weaker section of the society. Chandrababu Naidu, Garu gave me MLC post and I am loyal to him. I don't mind whatever name you call me for this," tweeted Venkanna.
