TOKYO: A remote-controlled robot on Tuesday was used to probe the hardest-hit nuclear reactor at Japan's wrecked Fukushima plant, as officials push forward with clean-up operations that have been mired in delays and controversy. An earthquake and tsunami in 2011 unleashed a disastrous meltdown at Fukushima Daiichi's three reactors that partly sunk their radioactive cores into the plant's concrete foundations.

Diplomatic efforts to defuse tensions around Ukraine continued on Tuesday with French President Emmanuel Macron expected in Kyiv the day after hours of talks with the Russian leader in Moscow yielded apparent breakthroughs. Macron is set to meet with Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy as fears of a possible Russian invasion mount.

The Kremlin has demanded guarantees from the West that NATO will not accept Ukraine and other former Soviet nations as members, halt weapon deployments there and roll back its forces from Eastern Europe - demands the US and NATO reject.

Western leaders in recent weeks have engaged in high-level diplomacy in the hope of de-escalating the tensions and preventing an attack.

Macron sat down with Russian President Vladimir Putin on Monday for talks that lasted more than five hours. After the long meeting, the two leaders emphasised the need for more talks, while also registering their disagreements.

Putin noted that the US and NATO have ignored Moscow's demands, but signalled his readiness to continue the negotiations.

यूनियन बैंक 🚺

He also warned that Ukraine's accession to NATO could trigger a war between Russia and the alliance. "If Ukraine becomes a NATO member and moves to reclaim Crimea, European countries will automatically be drawn into a military conflict with Russia," Putin said, noting that 'there will be no winners."

Macron said he had a "substantial, deep" discussion with Putin, with a focus on conditions that could help de-escalation. "We tried to build converging elements," he said. "The upcoming days will be crucial and deep discussions together will be needed." He added that it's Europe's duty to find a solution to try to rebuild good-neighbourly ties with Russia. In Washington, German Chancellor Olaf Scholz met with US President Joe Biden on Monday. Scholz will also travel to Kyiv and Moscow on February 14-15. Biden vowed that the Nord Stream 2 Russia-to-Germany gas pipeline, which has been completed but is not yet operating, will be blocked "if Russia invades, that means tanks and troops crossing the border of Ukraine again." The move would hurt Russia economically but also cause supply problems for Germany.

southeastern Europe," Johnson wrote to The Times on Monday. The West will do more to help Ukraine defend itself, Johnson added, noting that the UK is preparing to reinforce the British-led Nato battlegroup in Estonia. "Nato allies are agreed that we are willing to send more forces to guarantee the security of our allies on the eastern flank.

US and Russia clash over use and impact of UN sanctions

AGENCIES

The US and its allies clashed with Russia and China in UN Security Council on Monday over usefulness and impact of UN sanctions, which are currently imon countries from posed North Korea to Yemen and Congo as well the al-Qaida and Islamic State extremist groups and their affiliates and supporters.

Russia's deputy UN ambassador Dmitry Polyansky, who chaired the meeting, many sanctions regimes interfere with plans for state-building and economic development, pointing to Central African Republic and Sudan and calling the measures on Guinea Bissau "anachronistic."

US Ambassador Linda Thomas-Greenfield countered that sanctions are "a potent tool" that "make it harder for terrorists to raise funds," and have slowed development of "certain capabilities" in North Korea's nuclear and ballistic missile programmes.
