RPF personnel injured in an IED blast triggered by Naxals Seraikela Kharsawan district being airlifted for treatment in Ranchi on Tuesday PTI

15 security personnel injured in Jharkhand IED blast

RANCHI: At least 15 security personnel were injured when Maoists detonated an improvised explosive device (IED) in Jharkhand on Tuesday, police said. The IED hit a vehicle of the security personnel while they were on patrol duty in the forest area of Rai Sindri hill in Seraikela district. After the blast, Maoist guerrillas started firing at the security forces. The injured personnel were airlifted to Ranchi for treatment. "The IED had been planted to influence the recently concluded Lok Sabha elections. The security personnel were returning after patrolling when the blast took place," Jharkhand Director General of Police D.K. Pandey told the media.

Harsimrat wants Modi to take up Guru Nanak palace demolition issue with Pak

CHANDIGARH: Shiromani Akali Dal MP from Bathinda, Harsimrat Kaur Badal on Tuesday urged Prime Minister Narendra Modi to strongly take up with his Pakistani counterpart Imran Khan the issue of partial demolition of Guru Nanak Palace in Pakistan's Punjab province. "I join the #Sikh community in condemning the demolition of historical #GuruNanakPalace in #Pakistan's #Punjab province by some vandals in connivance with Aqaf authorities. As #Sikhs are deeply anguished, I urge @narendramodi ji to strongly take it up with Pak PM @ImranKhanPTI (Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf)," she tweeted.

Teacher awarded life term for sodomising over 25 boys

Jaipur: A court here on Tuesday awarded life imprisonment to a tutor for sodomising over 25 minor boy students over a period of six years. Ramiz Raja was convicted under sections of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, the Indian Penal Code and the Information Technology Act by the POCSO court-3. Magistrate Rajesh Kumar awarded life imprisonment to the teacher under the POCSO act. "Raja sodomised the students who used to go to his home for tuition classes. He made video clippings of the crime and had been asking the students to bring money for him," the counsel of one of the victims, Aslam Khan, said.

Girls outshine boys in Maha HSC exams

PUNE: Girls have outperformed boys in the class 12 examination in Maharashtra, results for which were announced on Tuesday. Girls have secured a pass percentage of 90.25 per cent against 82.40 per cent of boys in the Higher Secondary Certificate (HSC) examination conducted by the Maharashtra State Board for Secondary and Higher Secondary Education (MSBSHSE) in February-March 2019. The total pass percentage stood at 85.88% this year, announced board chairperson Shakuntala Kale. A total of 1,423,503 students had registered for the exam of which 1,421,936 students appeared, and 1,221,159 of them passed. Among the divisions, Konkarn secured the highest pass percentage at 93.23 per cent.

Armed men attack police party, free convict

CHANDIGARH: Three motorcycle-borne men opened fire at police personnel in Karnal on Tuesday and managed to free from custody a convict they were transporting from a court, officials said. The daring daylight raid took place when the police party was transporting the convict to Yamunanagar from Karnal after a hearing. Two policemen were injured in the attack, they said. Sunil (23), alias Kheera, a resident of Panipat, is a convict in a dacoity case and was undergoing trial in five other cases of heinous crimes, an official spokesperson said here. "He was freed by three assailants, who shot and injured two police officials escorting him at New Bus Stand, Indri Road Karnal," he said.

Two TMC MLAs...

"She will stick to her chair at all costs till people decide to remove her," he said, claiming that in the assembly polls, which are due in 2021, her party will struggle to emerge to get the status of the opposition party. The TMC had won 211 of the assembly's 294 seats in 2016. The BJP had won only three seats, but has since emerged as the principal challenger to her. A party needs to win at least 10 per cent of seats to be officially recognised as the main opposition party. "People are fleeing the TMC to join the BJP. Many more will join in the coming weeks," Roy said. With over 50 councillors joining the BJP, the party has got a majority in at least three municipal councils. Vijaywargiya noted that Prime Minister Narendra Modi had said in a speech during his campaign that over 40 TMC MLAs are in touch with the BJP and many regional party leaders are feeling suffocated due to Banerjee's "dictatorial" functioning. "We want her government to continue till 2021, but if it falls due to her doings, then we cannot help it," he said in a swipe at her. Mukul Roy also rejected the TMC's claim that the BJP was practising horse-trading by luring its leaders. Many MLAs of other parties, including the Congress, have joined the TMC due to "horse-trading", he countered. Mukul Roy is seen to be instrumental in engineering the defection of TMC leaders to the BJP and, political watchers believe, he is one of the key architects of the party's best ever Lok Sabha election show in the state, where Banerjee is in power since 2011. In the polls, the TMC's tally fell to 22 seats from 34, while the BJP's zoomed to 18 from two.

Naidu asks TDP cadres not to be disheartened

AGENCIES
Guntur

Nearly a week after the crushing defeat in the Andhra Pradesh Assembly and Lok Sabha elections, Telugu Desam Party (TDP) President N. Chandrababu Naidu on Tuesday asked party members not to be disheartened by the loss.

The outgoing Chief Minister along with his wife Nara Bhuvaneshwari and son Nara Lokesh participated in 97th birth anniversary celebrations of his father-in-law and party founder N.T. Rama Rao at the TDP office in Guntur.

Addressing the party leaders and workers after hoisting the party flag, Naidu asked them not to get demoralized. Paying rich tributes to NTR, as the late leader was popularly known, Naidu said he brought honour and recognition to Telugu people at the national and even international level.

He advised party leaders to follow the footsteps of NTR, who despite electoral defeats did not lose self-confidence and played the role of a constructive opposition. He recalled that NTR was the pioneer of the welfare schemes.

REDDY INVITES TDP CHIEF FOR SWEARING-IN

AMARAVATI: YSR Congress Party (YSRCP) leader and Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister-designate Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy on Tuesday invited TDP chief N. Chandrababu Naidu for his swearing-in ceremony. Reddy called Naidu on the phone to invite him to the ceremony slated to be held on Thursday, TDP sources said. Reddy was also learned to have sought the outgoing Chief Minister's advice and suggestions for the state's development. The YSRCP chief is inviting leaders of various parties to the ceremony.

Naidu said during the last four days many people came to him and said they had stood by the party for over three decades and they would remain so even in future. Stating that the party was more important for him than the family, Naidu said he would stand by the party workers. The 69-year-old announced that he will come to TDP office in Guntur every day and will be available to party leaders and workers for three hours. Naidu called for analyzing the election results.

TDP's Andhra Pradesh unit chief Kala Venkat Rao, MP Galla Jayadev and senior leaders Kodela Sivaprasada Rao and Y. Ramakrishnudu attended the celebrations.

LJP says Ram Vilast to be its representative in Modi cabinet

AGENCIES
New Delhi

Ram Vilas Paswan will be the Lok Janshakti Party's representative in Prime Minister Narendra Modi's Council of Ministers, his son and Parliamentary Party chief Chirag Paswan said here on Tuesday. Addressing a press conference after the party's Parliamentary Board meeting, Chirag Paswan said he himself was not inclined to become a minister as he wanted to focus on Bihar Assembly elections slated next year.

"We have passed a resolution that Ram

Vilas Paswanji will represent our party in the Union Cabinet," he said. Ram Vilas Paswan was Food Minister in the previous government led by Modi. "It is a big responsibility to become a minister. You need experience. I had turned down similar offer in 2014 too," Chirag said.

He, however, evaded an answer when asked what if the LJP is given a second ministerial berth. "We will see what to do when it happens," he replied. LJP won six of the seven Lok Sabha seats it contested.

CBI sends documents to ADG CID Rajeev Kumar's office

AGENCIES
Kolkata

A day after ADG CID Rajeev Kumar failed to appear for questioning in connection with the Saradha chit fund scam, the CBI on Tuesday sent some "documents" to his office, sources said. The documents were submitted at Kumar's office at Bhawan Bhawan in the southern part of Kolkata by CBI officials, they said without elaborating.

"This is not a summons but some necessary documents in connection with an investigation," a source said, dismissing reports that fresh summons were issued to the officer. Kumar, a former Kolkata police commissioner, had skipped a meeting with CBI officials on Monday despite being summoned by the agency for questioning in connection with the scam. He is now serving as additional director general of police in the CID.

Sanskaris throw fit over TMC's star MPs' western outfits

FP NEWS SERVICE
Mumbai

The sanskari wardrobe police seemed to be on the prowl on social media on Monday. Actresses Mimi Chakraborty and Nusrat Jahan, Trinamool Congress candidates who successfully contested the Lok Sabha elections from West Bengal, found themselves on the receiving end on social media for their outfits on their first visit to Parliament.

Mimi, who contested from Jadavpur, wore a white shirt, denims and sneakers, while Nusrat, who was elected from Basirhat, wore a plum-colored ensemble. "Seriously? This is how you pose in front of Parliament? This is not some film shooting. Get real, girl," admonished one. "Parliament is not a photo studio," said another, while one user simply slammed her saying, "she is not suitable for the position".

Another comment read: "You should wear some Indian attire in Parliament. You are going for people not for movie promotions. And keep some respect towards your Bengali society." "Wear sari in Parliament. You look like a tourist here," one netizen wrote on Nusrat's image, highlighting the stereotypes attached to women politicians in India.

However, there were also some bouquets for the duo. One user praised Nusrat for her "attitude". Another congratulated her on her victory and encouraged her to "work like a lioness".

This is not the first time that a woman politician has had to face people's wrath for her choice of clothes. Earlier this year, when Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra's display picture on Twitter changed, from a sari-clad look to one in a pair of jeans, there was a huge debate on social media.

Lokpal launches contest for motto, logo

NEW DELHI: The newly created anti-corruption ombudsman, Lokpal, has launched a competition for its logo and motto, official said on Tuesday. It has sought entries and is offering a cash prize of Rs 25,000, they said. Lokpal is a statutory body constituted under The Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act 2013 to enquire into allegations of corruption against certain categories of public servants/functionaries.

12 dead as vehicles collide in Jodhpur

JODHPUR: Twelve people, including two children, died when two vehicles collided head-on in Rajasthan's Jodhpur district, police said on Tuesday. The incident occurred near Agolia village in Balesar area, 73 km west of Jodhpur city, on Monday night. The collision was so intense that the heads of two passengers were severed and some of them got badly stuck in the mangled vehicles, an officer said. Ten people died on the spot, while two succumbed to injuries in a hospital.

Will Shah remain party boss?

ONLINE REPORT / New Delhi

Is Amit Shah joining the government or will he continue to head the party? The matter is being debated internally, an NDTV report said.

A section feels it does not make sense to replace Amit Shah as party chief just when big elections in Haryana, Jharkhand, Maharashtra, West Bengal and Delhi are looming on the horizon. Winning these states is important for the BJP if it wants to improve its position in the Rajya Sabha. At present, the ruling coalition has 99 members in the 250-member upper house.

Sources also said most of the outgoing ministers will be retained. They have incidentally been told to prepare a 100-day blueprint of what they plan to do in the first three months of NDA-

2. Some contestants who fought the national election and lost could also be accommodated.

There may be some change in the big four ministries - Home, Finance, Defence and Foreign Ministry. There is much discussion around the finance ministry; Arun Jaitley, who is unwell, is unlikely to return as FM, adds NDTV.
