With a hope to see the new family bloom, forest officials waited patiently. The wait was over on June 16, 2020 when forest staff reported spotting the cubs. However, the management decided to wait for evidence and on July 27, 2020, the cubs were captured via camera trap picture. Just ahead of Global Tiger Day, the picture of the new tiger family added a generation to the source population of Sanjay TR.

"Governor Kalraj Mishra has an image of being an able administrator who is known for his political righteousness. But in the case of Rajasthan he has been had observed: "Dushman banane ke liye zaroori nahi lada jaaye, aap thode kaamyaab ho jao to wo khairaat mein milenge (In order to make enemies it is not essential to fight... just be a little successful, you'll get them at a pittance...)", he explained. Preceded by the carpe diem sentiment which we could all use: "Being challenged in life is inevitable, being defeated is optional."
